Amerisure Awards Five Students with Scholarships

Program recognizes employees' children for hard work and educational commitment

Farmington Hills, Mich., July 17, 2014—Amerisure Insurance Company is pleased to announce the Amerisure Scholarship Program awarded $20,000 in scholarships to children of employees who plan to continue their education in college or vocational school. The program, now in its 23rd year, granted five scholarships and renewed 15 scholarships for the 2014/2015 academic year. Since its inception, the program has assisted 138 students and granted $393,000 in scholarships.

“Congratulations to all the recipients of this scholarship for pursuing their educational goals. We’re proud to support tomorrow’s leaders,” said Angela McBride, Chief Administrative Officer with Amerisure.

The five students, along with their respective university, who were awarded scholarship funding from the Amerisure Scholarship Program include:

- Joseph Dlugopolski (Wayne State University, Detroit)
- Rachel Donabedian (University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.)
- Laura Roggenbaum (Taylor University, Upland, Ind.)
- Tyler Stahl (University of North Florida, Jacksonville, Fla.)
- Kathryn Thibideau (University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.)

Amerisure established the scholarship program in 1992. Each year, the program awards up to six scholarships in the amount of $1,000 each for up to three years or until the completion of a degree or certificate. The scholarships provide assistance to Amerisure parents for the costs associated with post-secondary undergraduate education.
