Amerisure Promotes Rod Labbe to Assistant Vice President of Loss Control for Southwest Region

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich., November 19, 2015—Amerisure Mutual Insurance Company announces the promotion of Rod Labbe to Assistant Vice President of Loss Control, Southwest Region. In his new position, Labbe reports to Kevin Clary, Vice President of Loss Control with Amerisure.

Labbe assumes loss control leadership responsibility for Amerisure’s Dallas, Phoenix and St. Louis Core Service Centers (CSCs). Prior to joining Amerisure in 2014 as a Risk Management Specialist, Labbe spent more than 16 years at Federated Insurance. During his tenure, he held positions of increasing responsibility in loss control.

“Rod’s extensive risk management experience, along with his strong technical knowledge and leadership capabilities, will prove to be instrumental in his continued success at Amerisure,” said Clary.

Labbe received two BBAs from Fort Hays State University, Hays, Kan. in Management and Marketing. In addition, he holds an Associate in Commercial Underwriting and Associate in Premium Auditing designations, as well as a Certified Safety Specialist accreditation.

He will be based in Amerisure’s Dallas CSC.
