Amerisure Promotes Loss Control Executives

Farmington Hills, Mich., Jan. 9, 2015—Amerisure Mutual Insurance Company announces the following promotions, reporting to Kevin Clary, Vice President of Loss Control with Amerisure:

- Jim Flynn, Assistant Vice President of Loss Control
- Anne Marie May, MPH, ARM, LHRM, CIC, Regional Vice President of Loss Control

Jim Flynn has been promoted to Assistant Vice President of Loss Control from Loss Control Manager and is based in Farmington Hills, Mich. He joined Amerisure in 2003 and has held various roles as Loss Control Consultant, Senior Loss Control Consultant and Risk Management Specialist. He has accountability for the Chicago, Farmington Hills, Indianapolis and Minneapolis Core Service Centers (CSCs), and will have direct management responsibility for the Farmington Hills and Minneapolis CSCs. Flynn is a graduate of the University of Michigan-Dearborn, Dearborn, Mich., and holds a Safety Specialist Certificate from Ferris State University, Big Rapids, Mich.

Anne Marie May was promoted to Regional Vice President of Loss Control and has been with Amerisure for 10 years. During her tenure she has held a variety of positions, and most recently served as Assistant Vice President of Loss Control. Prior to joining Amerisure, she was a Manager of Loss Control for Royal and SunAlliance Insurance. Based in Tampa, Fla., May has accountability for the Atlanta, Charlotte, Richmond, Memphis and Tampa CSCs, and direct management responsibility for the Memphis and Richmond CSCs. She is a graduate from Boston College, Chestnut Hill, Mass., and earned a Master of Public Health degree with an emphasis on Environmental/Occupational Safety from the University of South Florida, Tampa, Fla.

“Jim and Anne Marie are experienced, proven Loss Control leaders who will enable us to continue delivering customized service to our Partners for Success[®] agencies and their preferred customers,” said Clary.
