Amerisure Names David E. Meador to its Board of Directors

Farmington Hills, Mich., November 11, 2016—The Amerisure Companies announce the election of David E. Meador to the board of directors of Amerisure Mutual Holdings, Inc. and the Amerisure Companies effective January 1, 2017.

Meador is Vice Chairman and Chief Administrative Officer for DTE Energy (NYSE: DTE). In his current role, he oversees finance and accounting, investor relations, information technology, procurement, fleet, facilities, regulatory, communications as well as government, corporate and public affairs.

"I am very pleased to welcome Dave to our board of directors," said Gregory J. Crabb, President and Chief Executive Officer of Amerisure Insurance Companies. "He brings extensive experience as well as proven corporate leadership and strategic management skills which will be valuable to our directors and senior executive team." Amerisure's Chairman, Phillip E. Love, Jr., added that "Dave's demonstrated commitment to the community aligns very well with Amerisure's focus on giving back to the communities where it does business."

Meador joined DTE Energy in 1997 as Vice President and Controller. In addition to controller, he previously served as Senior Vice President and Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer of DTE Energy. In December 2013, the board of directors elected him to his current position. Prior to DTE Energy, Meador served in a variety of financial and accounting positions at Chrysler Corporation for 14 years, and was an auditor with Coopers & Lybrand.

Meador earned a bachelor's degree in accounting and a master of business administration degree from Wayne State University. He is a Certified Public Accountant and member of the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and Financial Executives International. He serves on the Hudson-Webber Foundation, the Wayne State
