Amerisure Announces New Vice President of Finance

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich., June 15, 2017—Amerisure Insurance announces that Chris Spaude has been promoted to vice president of finance. In this position, Spaude directly reports to Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer Matt Simon.

In his new position, Spaude will be responsible for, and collaborate with, Amerisure’s Strategic and Operational Leadership Teams and field leadership in identifying and implementing business strategies, executable initiatives and plans, enabling the achievement of our Corporate Strategic and Operational targets. He will also lead the company’s efforts in industry forecasting and external benchmarking, as well as continue to be responsible for the financial planning, analysis and treasury functions.

“In his 14-year career at Amerisure, Chris has served in numerous positions within our financial services department,” states Simon. “His knowledge of the insurance industry, operational acumen and outstanding interpersonal skills make him the ideal person for this role.”

Spaude received his bachelor’s degree in business administration from Central Michigan University and an MBA in finance from Walsh College. He first came to Amerisure in 2003 as a budget analyst.
