Amerisure Employees Donate Easter Baskets to Children

Farmington Hills, Mich., April 17, 2014—Easter morning will be a little brighter for underprivileged children in the Dallas community. In its fifth consecutive year, Amerisure Mutual Insurance Company announces its Dallas Core Service Center (CSC) employees played “Peter Cottontail” by donating 45 Easter baskets filled with candy, coloring books, games, toys and other fun items.

“We’re so thrilled employees were so generous in contributing items to include in the Easter baskets for the needy children,” said Sky Hill, Field Marketing Underwriting Secretary, Amerisure Dallas CSC. “Many families are struggling to pay for life’s necessities, such as food and housing. By offering a helping hand from members of the local community, this provides the children with a sense someone out there cares.”

The children receiving the Easter baskets are from Ally’s House, Dallas & Collin County Advocacy Centers, Genesis Women’s Shelter, Good Shepherd Community Center, Hope’s Door, Interfaith Housing Coalition, Jonathon’s Place, Mi Escuelita, New Beginning Center, Our Friends Place, The Family’s Place and Vogel Alcove.

“Throughout the year, Amerisure employees work hard to support their local community,” said Angela McBride, Vice President of Human Resources. “Because of the generosity of the Dallas employees, the CSC was able to provide Easter baskets to children who would otherwise not be able to ‘hunt’ for a basket on Easter morning.”

This initiative was coordinated by employees from Amerisure’s Dallas CSC through the Towers of William Square office complex’s Easter Fill-A-Basket Drive.
