Amerisure Sponsors Michigan Council on Economic Education 13th Annual Economics Challenge State Finals

Farmington Hills, Mich., March 26, 2014—As part of its ongoing community service efforts, Amerisure Mutual Insurance Company announces its sponsorship of the Michigan Council on Economic Education's (MCEE) 13th Annual Economics Challenge State Finals.

"Amerisure has been supporting the MCEE's Economic Challenge State Finals for 12 consecutive years," said Dan Graf, Chief Investment Officer at Amerisure Insurance Company and MCEE Board of Director. "Year after year, the event continues to be a fun way for high school students to learn and demonstrate their economic understanding and reasoning skills through competition."

Established in 1979, MCEE is the leading voice for academic-based, well-rounded economic education in Michigan. By focusing on economics, entrepreneurship and personal finance, the organization brings engaging programs to the state's teachers, classrooms and citizens.

The MCEE Annual Economics Challenge State Finals takes place March 26, 2014 at Walsh College—Novi Campus in Novi, Mich.
