Amerisure Awards Six Students with Scholarships

Annual program recognizes employees' children for their educational commitment

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich., June 22, 2015—Amerisure Mutual Insurance Company is pleased to announce the Amerisure Scholarship Program awarded $17,000 in scholarships to children of employees who plan to continue their education in college or vocational school. The program, now in its 25th year, granted six scholarships and renewed 11 scholarships for the 2015/2016 academic year. Since its inception, the program has assisted 144 students and granted $410,000 in scholarships.

The six students, along with their respective university, who were awarded scholarship funding include:

- Andrew Harris (Michigan Institute of Aviation and Technology, Canton)
- Emma Hoy (Miami University, Oxford, Ohio)
- Kyle Kenney (University of North Florida, Jacksonville, Florida)
- Benjamin Linxwiler (Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology, Terre Haute, Indiana)
- Ian O'Rourke (University of Michigan, Ann Arbor)
- Corbin Pontious (Michigan State University, East Lansing)

"Amerisure congratulates all recipients of this scholarship. We're proud to support tomorrow's leaders, while also helping our employees with college expenses," said Angela McBride, Chief Administrative Officer with Amerisure.

Amerisure established the scholarship program in 1992. Each year, the program awards up to six scholarships in the amount of $1,000 each, renewable for up to three years of undergraduate study. The scholarships provide assistance to Amerisure parents for the costs associated with post-secondary undergraduate education.
