Amerisure Recognizes Top-Performing Employees

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich., June 19, 2015—Amerisure Mutual Insurance Company honored its top-performing employees during its annual Champions Through Excellence event on June 17, 2015. The ceremony recognizes individuals who made outstanding contributions during the 2014 performance year.

Amerisure's Champions Through Excellence recipients, in alphabetical order:

- Jeremy Biggs, Loss Control Consultant of the Year
- Jonathon Finch, Financial Services Professional of the Year
- Kerry McCarthy, Resource Professional of the Year
- Nancy Mariani, Service & Support Professional of the Year
- Jennifer Mazer, Claim Adjuster of the Year
- Gabe Pringle, Marketing Underwriter of the Year
- Jess Tavares, IT Professional of the Year

"Our Champions are motivated by a desire to excel, a passion for contributing to the success of Amerisure and our Partners for Success® agencies, and a commitment to advancing their own professional growth through continuous learning," said Matt Bertman, Director of Organizational and Leadership Development with Amerisure. "Their enthusiasm is contagious as they seek opportunities to advance the company's strategy while upholding our service culture and Guiding Principles."

To determine the Champions Through Excellence recipients, managers and colleagues nominate individuals who are viewed as cultural role models, while achieving or exceeding departmental/individual goals and performance objectives. Once compiled, the selection group identifies each Champion in seven categories: Claim Adjuster, Financial Services, IT, Loss Control, Marketing Underwriter, Resource Professional and Service & Support.
